The U.S. Department of Agriculture has evidence that on or about January 19, 2012, October 17, 2011, July 14, 2011, you or your organization committed violations of the following sections of the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 9:

3.1 (b) Housing Facilities, General....repeated failure to maintain housing facilities and areas used for storing animal food or bedding free of any accumulation of trash, waste material, junk, weeds, and other discarded materials

3.11(a) Cleaning, Sanitization, Housekeeping, Pest Control.... repeated failure to remove excreta from primary enclosures daily, and from under primary enclosures as often as necessary to prevent an excessive accumulation

The Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) created federal regulations to ensure the welfare of animals and help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impacts that are detrimental to the public interest, APHIS is providing you with an Official Warning for the violation(s) described above. Any further violation of these federal regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty, criminal prosecution, or other sanctions. If you have any questions concerning this Official Warning or violation(s), please contact the APHIS official listed in this notice.
